

THE 8TH ANNUAL CHARLOTTE AND JACQUES WOLF EDUCATORS' CONFERENCE

ECHOES and REFLECTIONS Leaders in Holocaust Education

July 13 – 17, 2015*

Anti-Defamation League
New York, NY

This unique opportunity is for middle and secondary English, history and fine arts educators interested in enhancing their own knowledge and understanding of the Holocaust and other genocides while learning instructional strategies to engage students in this difficult subject matter.

“Echoes and Reflections is an accessible, enriching and enlightening lens on Holocaust education that gives light to the individual story of a very serious event in history, and it allows educators and students to draw connections... to what it means in the world today.”

Lauren Moyer
2014 participant

FEATURED SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Abraham H. Foxman
National Director of the
Anti-Defamation League

Dr. Gatsinzi Basaninyenzi
Scholar on Tutsi genocide

Scott Miller
Director of the Benjamin
and Vladka Meed Registry of Holocaust Survivors at the United States Holocaust
Memorial Museum

TO APPLY, PLEASE VISIT:

<http://newyork.adl.org/echoes-conference/>

*DEADLINE:

May 8, 2015

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Learn from Holocaust and genocide experts and scholars
- Meet and hear from Holocaust survivors
- Model active and collaborative learning while exploring ten interdisciplinary lessons in Echoes and Reflections
- Network with dedicated educators interested in teaching about the Holocaust and genocide
- Tour New York City's Museum of Jewish Heritage
- Receive a copy of Echoes and Reflections, including a DVD with over 2 hours of visual history testimony
- Receive a certificate indicating the completion of 35 hours of professional development
- Receive possible funding for round-trip airfare and hotel accommodations in NYC

UNDERWRITTEN IN CONNECTION WITH A GRANT FROM ADL

