

EMPOWERING STUDENTS, CHALLENGING BIAS

A MIDDLE SCHOOL CURRICULUM

ABOUT THE CURRICULUM

Empowering Students, Challenging Bias: A Middle School Curriculum offers practical lesson plans that engage grade 6-8 students in an exploration of bias and discrimination, and empower them to take action to promote respect in their schools and communities.

The curriculum's 30 sequential lessons were designed with teachers in mind and feature contemporary topics and a variety of instructional methods including directed discussion, small group work and reflective writing.

HOW TO GET THE CURRICULUM

Empowering Students, Challenging Bias is available in conjunction with ADL's A World of Difference® Institute anti-bias training that provides a framework for its use in the classroom.

To learn more about this ADL professional development and the curriculum, contact your ADL regional representative or visit www.adl.org/anti-bias-curriculum
