Thank You
for your support

On behalf the ADL New York/New Jersey team, thank you for your incredible support throughout 2020. It was a difficult year in many ways, but you stood by us in our cause to fight hate, which unfortunately did not stop with the pandemic. This work is made possible by your contributions and strengthened by your partnership and advocacy, all of which we deeply appreciate. As we begin this year with hopes for a better tomorrow, we look forward to continuing our important work together.

Thank you for helping ADL fight hate for good!

EXTREMISM AND ANTISEMITISM AT THE U.S. CAPITOL

ADL has been on the forefront of monitoring extremist rhetoric surrounding the violence that erupted on January 6th at the U.S. Capitol. We have published several pieces about ongoing displays of antisemitism, right-wing extremism and the mainstreaming of hate.

ADL'S EXPERTISE SOUGHT IN RESPONSE TO JANUARY 6 ATTACK

In the immediate aftermath of the November 2020 presidential election, pro-Trump groups and other extremists announced their initial plans to protest President-Elect Joe Biden's Inauguration in Washington, D.C. Those calls for large-scale protests on or around January 20 attracted renewed interest following the January 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol, with threats of additional extremist violence circulating on numerous online platforms. ADL's experts have been highly sought after to help explain the violent attacks. Recent ADL appearances include:

- PBS NewsHour – ADL CEO Jonathan Greenblatt on the threat extremists pose (5 minutes)
- 60 Minutes – ADL VP for the Center on Extremism Oren Segal on the attack on the Capitol (8 minutes)

BE HEARD IN CONGRESS

Time is of the essence. Your input — together with the input of others — matters on Capitol Hill. ADL's legislative advocacy arm works with dozens of leaders in Washington. When we fail to demonstrate grassroots support in lawmakers' districts, our voice is diminished.

Add your voice to ADL's legislative advocacy arm around today's most pressing issues surrounding voting rights, confronting discrimination, and combatting hate. Click here to take action and fight hate for good!

EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

RESOURCES FOR EDUCATORS, PARENTS AND STUDENTS

- The Dangers of Disinformation: Use ADL's Table Talk for a parent/family discussion to talk about the dangers of "false" news and disinformation by examining the January 6 U.S. Capitol invasion and the events leading up to it.
- Discussing Political Violence and Extremism with Young People: Use Sutori resources to initiate or continue conversations about the recent events at the U.S. Capitol. More details and resources may be added as the situation evolves and more information emerges.
- 7 Ideas for Teaching about the Presidential Inauguration: Use our middle and high school teaching guide for ideas on how to discuss and analyze the recent Presidential Inauguration.

- Book of the Month: You Don't Know Everything, Jilly P! This chapter book for ages 8-12 tells the story of Jilly, who realizes how much she still has to learn. The world is going to treat Jilly, who is white and hearing, differently from her sister Emma who is deaf, just as it will treat them both differently from their cousins who are Black.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. AND CIVIL RIGHTS: RELEVANCY FOR TODAY

In commemoration of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, this curriculum for grades 3–12 provides grade-specific lessons, resources and extension activities to provide your students opportunities to examine civil rights in the United States past and present.

The lessons provide an opportunity for students to delve deeper into Martin Luther King Jr.'s historic "I Have a Dream Speech". All students will explore tone, audience, use of metaphor and highlights of this important speech. Older students will discover more about the civil rights movement and specifically about the struggle for voting rights over the years, including an analysis of voter suppression laws and the Supreme Court ruling in Shelby County v. Holder that struck down key provisions of the Voting Rights Act.
