REGIONAL UPDATES

No Place for Hate® Day

6/10/22

Friday, June 10th is our third annual No Place for Hate® Day celebration where we acknowledge the hard work of schools who have been designated No Place For Hate! We're encouraging our No Place for Hate schools, students, and educators to share their stories on social media. We'll be highlighting these stories through our social channels all day! Please join us by sharing, re-tweeting and acknowledging the difference they're making by taking over social media with #noplaceforhate.

NATIONAL UPDATES & RESOURCES

Remembering the Lives Lost in Uvalde, TX

ADL was devastated by the tragic shooting of 19 children and 2 teachers in Uvalde, TX in the deadliest school shooting since the horrific event at Sandy Hook Elementary in 2012. For resources aimed at helping families talk about gun violence and mass shootings, click here, and to support our partner LULAC, please click here.

JOIN US ON THE FRONTLINES

ADL's volunteer leaders are dedicated ambassadors to ADL in their local communities. Ben Sax, the Chair of ADL's Board of Directors and longtime NY/NJ Regional Board Member, joined Scott Richman on a recent From the Frontlines podcast to discuss the importance of volunteer leadership, and how these committed individuals are often the face of the organization.

STAY UPDATED WITH ADL NY/NJ

ADL NY/NJ Twitter Spotlight:

- We are deeply concerned by video footage that has emerged following reported discrimination against Orthodox Jews by Lufthansa. As we

continue to await a response we once again call for a comprehensive investigation of both the footage & very serious allegations related to it.

- Regional Director Scott Richman joined CNN's Jim Sciutto and Bakari Sellers to discuss the deadly dangers of the misguided Great Replacement Theory that the Buffalo shooter avowed. Now, more must be done to push back against this racist and antisemitic theory.
- ADL joined NYCLU & other groups to thank Assemblyperson Karines Reyes for sponsoring the NY4All Act & ask other NY lawmakers to sign on as cosponsors.
