SCOTT RICHMAN OP-ED: DON'T BLAME JEWS FOR POLIO'S COMEBACK

ADL/NYNJ Regional Director Scott Richman has a new op-ed in the The New York Daily News. In "Don't blame Jews for Polio's comeback", Scott writes about the dangerous trend of stereotyping the Orthodox and Hasidic Jewish communities in times of public health crises, most recently with Polio.

THE OATH KEEPERS DATA LEAK: UNMASKING EXTREMISM IN PUBLIC LIFE

ADL's Center on Extremism (COE) released a new report on the Oath Keepers based on the membership data released in September 2021 by the non-profit journalist collective, Distributed Denial of Secrets. ADL's analysis uses the leaked data to highlight the number of individuals who signed up for or expressed support for the Oath Keepers who hold elected office, work in law enforcement, serve in the military and are emergency service personnel.

For more information about the recent report, listen to ADL NY/NJ's recent From the Frontlines podcast for an interview with Alex Friedfeld, one of COE's Investigative Researcher.

NATIONAL HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH: IDEAS FOR EDUCATORS

National Hispanic Heritage Month honors the achievements, contributions, culture, and history of Hispanic and Latin American people. The month-long celebration begins on September 15 commemorating the anniversary of independence for five Latin American countries: Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua.

RESOURCES & TOOLS

VOTING RIGHTS AND THE 2022 ELECTION

The promise of our democracy can only be made real when we ensure that every voice is heard. ADL supports nonpartisan efforts to encourage voting and make voting safe and accessible, so that everyone is able to take part in this critical aspect of our democracy. This is especially important as we work to overcome obstacles that could negatively impact fair access to the ballot.
