REGIONAL UPDATES

No Place for Hate Registration Now Open

As the school year is fast approaching, we encourage you all to bring No Place for Hate to your school communities. This initiative invites students, teachers, administrators, and parents to complete at least three school-wide activities that center anti-bias education in active learning and discussion. Please note, only school staff can register their school community for the program, so please share the registration link when them today!

For school communities above Rockland and Westchester County, please share the Upstate No Place for Hate registration link with your school:

UPSTATE NY SCHOOL STAFF MEMBERS

For school communities in Rockland, Westchester, Long Island, Northern & Central New Jersey, as well as the 5 boroughs, please share the Downstate No Place for Hate registration link with your school:

Applications for ADL NY/NJ's 2022-2023 Glass Leadership Institute (GLI) are extended through September 6th! GLI builds a network of emerging leaders, ages 20s to 40s, who are knowledgeable about ADL's work and are committed to ensuring the vitality of the organization. At the culmination of the program, participants will have a deeper understanding ADL's mission, goals, and impact and how they can make a meaningful difference.

GLI APPLICATION

Is there an emerging leader in your network that you think would be a great addition to GLI? Nominate them to join the program.

ADL EXPERTS FEATURED ON CNN SPECIAL

ADL's innovative work in fighting antisemitism was highlighted on CNN's Special Report on antisemitism last week. ADL CEO & National Director Jonathan Greenblatt and VP of ADL's Center on Extremism Oren Segal spoke in depth about the current rise of antisemitism in America, and how the organizationtrack and monitor extremists.

If you'd like to watch the full recording, you can do so on CNNgo, CNN's ondemand platform, by logging in with your cable provider.

JOIN US ON THE FRONTLINES

Never Is Now, the world's largest summit on antisemitism and hate, is back!

Last year, 11,000 people joined us virtually for ADL's Never Is Now Summit and we are excited to welcome thousands more this year from around the world.

Join us as we come together in person at the Javits Center in New York City on November 10th at this urgent time in the fight against antisemitism.

Frontline members will be able to gather with fellow dedicated supporters to hear from government leaders, ADL experts, visionaries from business and entertainment and authorities on fighting hate during these, and more, justannounced sessions:

- Preparing Your Community for Antisemitic Threats
- Securing Democracy: Taking Hate and Extremism to Court (CLEeligible)
- How Students Are Confronting Anti-Zionism and All Antisemitism on Campus (Presented with Hillel International)
- Do They Actually Care? Reporting Hate to Social Media Platforms
- Staying Resilient: Navigating Antisemitism from the Left in Progressive Spaces

STAY UPDATED WITH ADL NY/NJ

ADL NY/NJ Twitter Spotlight:

- ADL NY/NJ was honored to join NY Governor Kathy Hochul at the Museum of Jewish Heritage as she signed the Holocaust education bill into law on August 10th.
- We were appalled by reports that rocks were thrown at worshippers inside a Paterson, NJ mosque. All should feel safe and secure in their houses of worship, and we condemn this apparent bias crime in the strongest possible terms.
- As longtime members of the One Crown Heights coalition, we were proud to be at our annual Festival in Brower Park on August 21st.
