COUNTERING VIOLENT EXTREMISM, TERRORISM, AND ANTISEMITIC THREATS IN NEW JERSEY

Earlier this month, Scott Richman, ADL NY/NJ Regional Director, gave testimony to the Committee on Homeland Security at the congressional field hearing on Countering Violent Extremism, Terrorism, and Antisemitic Threats in New Jersey. The hearing took place at the municipal building in Teaneck, NJ for the House Homeland Security Committee.

165 protests and actions

20 BDS resolutions and referenda

ANTI-ISRAEL ACTIVISM ON U.S. CAMPUSES, 2021-2022

ADL recently released its annual assessment of anti-Israel activism on American college campuses. This report provides a snapshot of a more radical activist movement which places opposition to Israel and/or Zionism as core elements of campus life or as a prerequisite for full acceptance in the campus community.

Lauren Post, an Analyst at ADL's Center on Extremism recently joined Scott Richman on the From the Frontlines podcast to discuss this report.

THANK YOU FOR JOINING ADL TO URGE ADIDAS TO #RUNAWAYFROMHATE

ADL welcomed Adidas's decision to formally sever ties with Kanye West ("Ye") after weeks of Ye spewing vitriolic antisemitic remarks across social media and on other forums. Adidas joins Balenciaga, CAA talent agency, the Gap and others who terminated their relationship with Ye in previous days.

Thank you to the almost 20,000 people who joined ADL to #RunAwayFromHate who sent letters to Adidas asking them to condemn antisemitism and re-evaluate their partnership with Ye.
