AMERICANS' VIEWS ON GENERATIVE ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE, HATE AND HARASSMENT

ADL's Center for Technology and Society has been monitoring the emergence of Generative Artificial Intelligence (GAI) tools such as ChatGPT. Our analysis and questions for lawmakers and technologists urge them to consider the risks GAI poses in magnifying online hate and harassment and further destabilizing an already fragile information ecosystem.

SUPREME COURT REVIEW: July 13, 2023

In another extraordinary year, Supreme Court decisions about affirmative action, religious accommodation, social media regulation and voting rights are redefining the legal landscape.

For a deeper understanding of the key cases, we invite you to ADL's 24th Annual Supreme Court Review on July 13th from 12:00 pm-1:30 pm ET, presented in partnership with the National Constitution Center.

This free online event will give you insights into the Court's decisions in the current term and what they mean for all of us.

Join ADL and NCC as we bring together distinguished legal scholars and Supreme Court analysts Erwin Chemerinsky, Miguel Estrada, Dahlia Lithwick, Gregory G. Garre and Frederick Lawrence to discuss important cases and what to expect next term. Journalist Amy Howe moderates.

For information about getting CLE credits at no cost for attending this program, please view the event page.
