THIS YEAR, LESSONS OF PASSOVER HIT HOME

ADL NY/NJ's Regional Director, Scott Richman, shared in The Times of Israel: "Tonight, Jewish communities around the world will gather around a seder table to celebrate Passover and mark the liberation of the Jewish people from slavery in ancient Egypt. This year, the themes of perseverance and resiliency in the face of adversity will be particularly resonant...Despite these unprecedented challenges, we must not give in to fear, and we cannot become complacent. At ADL, we are using a multi-pronged approach to fight antisemitism through advocacy, education and partnerships."

ADL UPDATES & RESOURCES

CAMPUS ANTISEMITISM REPORT CARD

ADL's Campus Antisemitism Report Card is a tool for students, parents, alumni, college faculty, guidance counselors, admissions consultants and other stakeholders. Our goal is to serve students and their families looking for information about the current state of antisemitism on campus and how particular universities and colleges are responding.

ADL produced this Report Card during a time of incredible volatility on college campuses. It takes the temperature at a moment in time and provides a roadmap for improving campus climate. This is Report Card version 1.0 and should be used in concert with other tools when making decisions about college.

Our analysis combines objective data with certain subjective impressions and analysis as well as our beliefs about how to weigh different factors. Reasonable people may disagree with these decisions.

COUNTERING ANTISEMITISM ACT

This month Congress introduced the Countering Antisemitism Act—the most comprehensive antisemitism initiative to be introduced in Congress. ADL has worked on this bipartisan legislation with the Co-Chairs of the House and Senate Task Forces to Combat Antisemitism for nearly a year, and are now mobilizing to support its passage.

This bill will implement the historic U.S. National Strategy to Counter Antisemitism and make permanent its critical policies and infrastructure.
